

Miss Monique

(Siona Records, Drumcode, Cercle Records, Purified records)

A trailblazing Ukrainian DJ, Producer and Label Owner in the melodic house and techno space, Miss Monique has captivated the electronic music scene with her unparalleled fusion of techno rhythms, trance, and progressive tunes.

Ranked among the top 10 fastest-rising electronic music artists by Viberate, Miss Monique (whose real name is Alesia Arkusha) continues solidifying her position as a force to be reckoned with in the industry. Notable highlights in her career include her Cercle performance with over 3 million views, an invitation to David Guetta's Future Rave events, Tomorrowland 2022, EDC Mainstage 2022/2023, and being named Artist of the Month by Beatport in December 2021. Miss Monique's talents have also been recognized by legendary BBC Radio 1, where she recorded a unique mix in February 2023.

Renowned artists have championed Miss Monique's extensive discography, including Pete Tong, Vintage Culture, Camelphat, David Guetta, Tiesto, Nora En Pure, and The Chainsmokers. Standout releases include her remix of Sied van Riel's 'Rush,' which became the most-sold Progressive House track on Beatport in 2022, and her single 'Concorde,' which spent six weeks in the Beatport top 10 Melodic Techno chart. Her latest release, 'City Boy,' has been released on Adam Beyer's esteemed label Drumcode.

Miss Monique has brought her electrifying performances to stages worldwide, including EDC Mainstage, Tomorrowland, Cercle, Hi Ibiza, and Space Miami. She has shared the stage with Boris Brejcha, Artbat, Meduza, and Hernan Cattaneo. In the next 6-12 months, fans can catch her at events such as Space Miami, Desert Hearts, We Love Green, Picnik Electronic, and Berlin Music Week.
